President Message to the Community

My dear fellow community members,

In the February 2013 patrika, we outlined some of the changes we are trying to bring. I am pleased to inform you that we have been successful to initiate a few of them.

We started the Bal-Aarti program for the kids and the first two weeks have been a phenomenal success. Bal-Vihar students and kids at temple are performing the Aarti singing along with Panditji. It is open to every kid and no pre-qualification is required to participate. Please find sometime in your schedule on a Sunday and bring your child to participate or just stop by to watch this heart-warming scene.

HTCC started to serve Sunday Prasad at no cost to the Devotees. We believe prasad is a form of blessing from the God. So we will make every attempt to sustain this initiative with the help from a wonderful community. Yes, it costs money to support an initiative like this, but we are very confident that we have the support from the community and we can take it forward.

We are actively working to expand the activities of the Cultural Center of HTCC. We want to position HTCC as an equally important contributor to the Cultural enrichment as to the religious and spiritual enrichment. As a beginning, HTCC will be celebrating Swami Vivekananda’s 150th birth anniversary on April 7th with a day filled with cultural activities and a scholarly lecture from Mr. Phillip Goldberg. The details are inside the Patrika. Please join us in this groundbreaking event. Watch out for more such events shortly thereafter.

The next three months are filled with many religious events dear to all of us. We have Holi Mela and Play of Colors on Mar 30th; Sri Ram Navami on April 19th; Akhand Ramayan Path on April 20th & 21st. In May, we will celebrate Temple’s anniversary and one of the most important events of HTCC – The Brahmostsavam. The details will be soon publicized.

As we move through the year, we will keep you posted of the changes we are making. We need you to be involved in every possible way – Volunteer your time, give us ideas on how to improve things and show your solidarity through your participation. HTCC is yours and only “YOU” can help us improve it.

May God Bless You,
Humble Regards.

More than hundred years ago, Swami Vivekananda was the first to bring the taste of Vedanta to this country and to the West. “Spirituality must conquer the West,” he declared. He called Hinduism “the mother of all religions,” not because he believed that its doctrine alone is right, but on the contrary, because it makes no such exclusive claims. “India alone was to be, of all lands, the land of toleration; we accept all religions as true.” This sounded odd to orthodox Christians who considered gods other than theirs as ‘falls gods’ and Hindus as primitive idol worshipers. But after his famous address to the Parliament of World Religions in Chicago in 1893, he got a rousing welcome in America and many among his audience were curious and eager to learn about Vedanta and Hinduism. During his stay in America, he spread the Vedanta message of ‘Oneness’ to numerous people, many of whom became his disciples and opened centers of their own to teach this new spiritual knowledge to Americans. Yoga as a spiritual discipline got acceptance in America. Since then there has been numerous teachers, gurus, and yogi’s who brought various forms of yoga from India in the last hundred years. Notable among them were Swami Yogananda in the early 1920’s, Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, and Bhaktivedanta Pravupada in the 1960’s and many others after that. There were also important American gurus who went to India and took lessons on ‘Eastern spirituality’ from Indian yogis and came back to this country to spread the movement.

There is an underlying history of Vedanta concepts being silently accepted in American culture for more than hundred years. One of the greatest American poets, reformer and writer Ralph Waldo Emerson composed a poem “Brahma” with the following lines:

“If the red slayer think he slays Or if the slain think he is slain They know not well the subtle ways I keep, and pass, and turn again”…

The above shows his deep understanding of ‘Bhagvat Gita”. Ralph Emerson, Henry Thoreau and many other notable philosophers founded ‘transcendentalism’ movement which considered spiritual experience as the highest truth, much superior than empirical and scientific knowledge. These ideas have parallels in Vedanta. Thoreau spoke of his debt to Vedanta thoughts in his composition as follows:

“I lay down the book and go to my well for water, and lo! there I meet the servant of the Brahmin, priest of Brahma, and Vishnu and Indra, who still sits in his temple on the Ganges reading the Vedas, or dwells at the root of a tree with his crust and water-jug.” — continued on in the next page

In the sixties, Ravi Shankar brought the music of the soul to the West which got instant acclaim through the enthusiastic support of the ‘Beatles’. Many western musicians found deep spiritual experience in Indian classical music. Yoga is a household name in America now, thanks to hundreds of teachers who are responsible for popularizing the discipline. Today there are more than sixteen million yoga practitioners in America and items such yoga mat, incense and other yoga accessories constitute billion dollar industry. Yoga techniques have been incorporated well into western medicine and millions of people are getting benefit everyday by its practice.

Along with yoga, many eastern concepts got accepted in American culture as well. Words such as karma, pundit, nirvana,vegetarianism etc. are familiar in America now showing assimilation of Indian concepts. A history of American assimilation of Vedanta and Hindu spirituality has been well documented in a recent book “American Veda” by Philip Goldberg. Such a scholarly book is rare on this subject.

Although yoga as a physical fitness discipline is so visible and popular, the spiritual component of it, which raises the human consciousness to higher level, is not always understood as the main goal of yoga by majority. Many yoga practitioners even do not know its Indian origin. We often encounter the term ‘Christian Yoga’ as if to deny its true origin which is very unfortunate.

Worship of Lord Shiva and Shiva Tattwa

The festival of Maha Shivaratri is highly auspicious for Hindus all over the world. People fast (upavasa) the whole day and remain alert (jagrat) to worship Lord Shiva. Hindus worship idols, they instill breath or life (prana) and truth into these idols, by which the idols are transformed into divinity and godhood. One name of Lord Shiva is Ashutosha. Ashu means quick, Tosha means satisfied. Ashutosha means ‘he who is quickly satisfied.’ Lord Shiva quickly fulfills all the desires and aspirations of the devotees.

Spiritual practice or sadhana is needed to understand the subtle and deeper aspects of worship. In the worship (puja) tradition eight Shivas (or astasambhu) are worshipped. They are expressions of living Shivas. In our body there are seven chakras or energy centers. These seven chakras, described below, inside the spine are known as Shiva chakras.

Aistasambhu within

Muladhara chakra - Muladhara, located in the bottom of the spine, represents earth element or kshiti tattwa. The name of the Shiva in this chakra is Sarva. The mantra recited is Sarvaya kshitimurtaye namah.

Swadhisthana chakra - Swadhisthana, located behind the genitals, represents water element or jala tattwa. The name of the Shiva in this chakra is Bhava. The mantra recited is Bhavaya jalamurtaye namah.

Manipura chakra - Manipura, located behind the navel, represents fire element or Agni (Tej) tattwa. The name of the Shiva in this chakra is Rudra. The mantra recited is Rudraya agnimurtaye namah.

Anahata chakra - Anahata, located behind the heart, represents air element or Vayu tattwa. The name of the Shiva in this chakra is Ugra. The mantra recited is Ugraya vayumurtaye namah.

Visuddha chakra - Visuddha, located behind the neck, represents ether element or Akasha tattwa. The name of the Shiva in this chakra is Bhīma. The mantra recited is Bhimaya akasha murtaye namah.

Ajna chakra - Ajna is located above the upper end of the spine, behind the brain above the atlas bone. As the five elements(tattwas) join together to form living beings, insects, animals, trees, birds, and the entire creation, similarly, the five Shivas conglomerate to form Mahashiva as life (prana swarupa). Here the name of the Shiva is Pasupati. The mantra recited is Pasupataye yajamannurtaye namah. … continued on in the next page

Republic day Celebration by Hindi class

By
Dr. Shveta Grover

The 64th Republic day of India was celebrated in the Community Hall of HTCC on Jan 27th in communion with Hindi Class and other local regional organizations.

Ceremony started with American national anthem followed by flag hoisting by temple priest and temple Manager Mr. Goyal and Usha Saha. Hindi class students proudly rendered the Indian National Anthem, “Jana Gana Mana”.

These kids also presented patriotic songs “Vande maataram” and “Yeh desh hai veer Jawanon ka” prepared by Mr. Lok Sharma and Mr. Dwarka Gupta. The steps in “Yeh desh hai veer Jawanon ka” were choreographed by parent volunteer Ms. Shyamaly.

This was followed by a skit prepared by Mrs. Priyamvada, advanced group teacher. Nikita performed as the reporter of Aajtak interviewing the freedom fighters. Jhanvi portrayed as Madam Bhikaiji Cama, Sayan as Udham Singh and Aakriti as Jhansi Ki Rani. Jhanvi said, she was unhappy with the freedom of India due to crimes going on in India, especially against the women. Sayan and Aakriti on the other hand were happy with the freedom of India as freedom is the birth right of any individual, quoting the famous lines said by Indian freedom fighter “Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak”.

The students then presented a dance on the Bollywood movie song, “Rang de Basanti” that was brilliantly choreographed by Mr. Ram and Mrs. Shilpa. Mr. Ram, despite not connected directly with Hindi class, is giving his invaluable time preparing the kids for the dances for last one year for different events. His contribution is greatly appreciated.

Despite some recent personal setbacks for our Hindi Class coordinator, Swapnam ji, she ensured that the Hindi class students participated in this community event. Unmatched commitment! She strongly believes that events like this and the subsequent efforts put in by everyone linked to the class, serves for the betterment of our kids and community. Long time volunteers and friends with Swapnam ji, Mrs. Chandra Gupta and Mrs. Neelam Kumar, share this vision and left no stone unturned in preparation of this event.

Thyagaraja Aradhana is a Traditional Carnatic Music festival held during the month of January in India, and during the Month of April and May in North America. Saint Thyagaraja was a great composer of Carnatic Music. He was a prolific composer and highly influential in the development of the South Indian classical music tradition. Thyagaraja composed thousands of devotional compositions, most of them in praise of Lord Rama — most of which remain very popular even today. Of special mention are five of his compositions called the Pancharathna Krithis (English: ‘Five Gems’), which are often sung in Carnatic music programs in his honor. Carnatic Musicians in India have been performing this wonderful Pancharathna Kritis at the Saint Samadhi located in Tiruvaiyaru in Tamilnadu as homage to this great composer every year on Pushya Bahula Panchami, the day the Saint attained Samadhi.

Carnatic Group of HTCC along with local Carnatic Musicians will be presenting the Thyagaraja Aradhana this year at the Hindu Temple on Friday April 5th 2013 @ 6pm. We request all Music lovers to come and enjoy the Musical Evening!

If I were asked to define the Hindu creed, I should simply say: Search after truth through non-violent means. A man may not believe in God and still call himself a Hindu. Hinduism is a relentless pursuit after truth... Hinduism is the religion of truth. Truth is God. Denial of God we have known. Denial of truth we have not known.
— Mahatma Gandhi

The great secret of true success, of true happiness, is this: the man or woman who asks for no return, the perfectly unselfish person, is the most successful.
— Swami Vivekananda

Should even one's enemy arrive at the doorstep, he should be attended upon with respect. A tree does not withdraw its cooling shade even from the one who has come to cut it.”
— Mahabharata 12.146.5
